

DISCLAIMER & TERMS OF USE

The information contributed to IT HAPPENS HERE project has been provided voluntarily and with acknowledgement that submissions to 'Make Your Mark', 'Share Your Story', or the 'Manifesto For Change' may be published (in whole or in part) on the IT HAPPENS HERE website, or be used in other print, multimedia or live productions developed by the project.

The information contained in this website, and related project materials, is intended for general informational and educational purposes. This information is provided anonymously, and we have no means of verifying (and thus make no guarantees regarding) the completeness, accuracy, reliability or veracity of the information presented.

Any reliance you place on this information is strictly at your own risk. IT HAPPENS HERE will not be responsible for damages of any nature, resulting from the use of the information on this website.

IT HAPPENS HERE is strongly committed to protecting the anonymity/identity of both contributors (survivors) and alleged perpetrators. All submissions are closely reviewed prior to publication; and potentially identifying information will be removed.

All of the systems/application used to gather and store contributors' information are securely maintained, and regularly updated, by staff of the Dawson College Information Services and Technology (IST) department. The website is protected using SSL encryption, similar to that used by banking websites.

The IT HAPPENS HERE website includes links to other websites owned and operated by third parties. These links are not endorsements or recommendations.
